 UMCD Code of Academic Integrity

Know the Code of Academic Integrity

The following actions are prohibited and subject to disciplinary action:

Cheating: fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in any academic course or exercise in an attempt to gain an unfair advantage and/or intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic course or exercise.

Fabrication: intentional and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in any academic course or exercise.

Facilitation of academic dishonesty: intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to violate any provision of this Code.

Plagiarism: intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one’s own in any academic course or exercise.

Sign the Honor Pledge

The Honor Pledge is a statement undergraduate and graduate students are asked to write by hand and sign on examinations, papers, or other academic assignments. The Pledge reads:

“I pledge on my honor that I have not given or received any unauthorized assistance on this assignment/examination.”
